

2019 APCE Annual Event February 6-9, 2019

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters . . .

—Isaiah 55:1a

Commonalities and Uniquities

There are some things you can count on when you attend an APCE Annual Event. Let's call these Commonalities. Here are a few examples:

- We will have chicken for at least one of our meals!
- The Market Place will entice us to buy at least one new resource or book.
- Wonderful workshops will be presented during multiple time slots.

Each APCE Annual Event also offers things that are different. Let's call these Uniquities! This newsletter focuses on things that are unique to this location and this conference. We hope you will be open to being changed and experiencing change. Come to the Waters!

Choices! Choices! Choices!

Two major airports serve the Galveston-bound conferees.

- The George Bush Intercontinental (IAH) is located about 70 miles from Galveston.
- The William P. Hobby (HOU) is 40 miles from Galveston.

Luxury! Convenience! Practical!

Annual Event Galveston attendees will have three choices of hotels. The San Luis offers luxury accommodations. The Hilton, right next door to the Convention Center, has well-appointed, comfortable rooms. The Incomparable!
Quite possibly the most entertaining, most endearing, and most memorable concert you'll ever attend! "The True Story of Cinderella" will be presented by PAM (Presbyterian Association of Musicians) Friday evening.

Will you choose to walk on the beach or walk on our labyrinth or both?

Will you help with a mission project that you didn't have to plan?

Donate 60 to 90 minutes of your time to help pack meals for the 25% of the Houston population who experiences food insecurity! APCE has been given a grant to cover the cost of the materials needed to pack 14,000 meals. Many meal recipients are still recovering from Hurricane Harvey. All we need are your willing hearts and hands.

Will you choose to sing in the conference choir and premiere a hymn written just for this event?

Will you save part of your free evening on Thursday for the Hymn Fest at the Moody Methodist Church?

You won't want to miss the Hymn Fest at the Moody Methodist Church Thursday evening. Come sing along on a variety of theme-based hymns led by the Chancel Choirs of Moody Memorial and First Presbyterian Church of Dallas, TX. Experience Moody Memorial's million-dollar 117-rank Schantz organ!
