

Web of Faith Support/Circle of

Care Write student's name in the center. Starting with family members and working out to SS teachers, Youth leaders, other students-- have students identify all those who love Jesus and love and support them.

Have students identify circles of support. If a student is looking for a mentor, have him or her identify the gifts or character traits of individuals that the student might want to learn more about or grow in themselves.