

INTERIM CAMPUS MINISTER

Bama UKirk / First Presbyterian Church Tuscaloosa, Alabama

www.fpctusc.org

Position Description

Qualifications and Qualities

The Interim Campus Minister will lead with a passion for Jesus Christ, demonstrate a love of college students, and embody a commitment to Christ's church. The Interim Campus Minister will be an engaging yet humble leader who will minister to the college students of Bama UKirk in a time of transition. The Interim Campus Minister will be an energetic, creative self-starter who will not only engage college students in relevant, creative and flexible ways, but also invite them to connect with the ministry and membership of FPC Tuscaloosa, a congregation long-dedicated to Campus Ministry.

Duties

1. Create opportunities to support and extend the love, hospitality and grace of Jesus Christ to college students.
2. Supervise day-to-day opportunities for discipleship, scholarship, fellowship, worship, and mission.
3. Foster student leadership in the planning and implementation of programs relating to campus ministry and the greater life of the church. This includes a newly resurrected student internship program.
4. Provide leadership in administering the daily tasks of campus ministry.
5. Participate in campus life with compassion for college students and a passion for sharing with them in ministry.
6. Serve as the staff liaison to the Campus Ministry Committee.
7. Encourage the congregation of FPC to be involved in supporting programs and build relationships with college students.
8. Promote campus ministry as an ambassador for college ministry to the community, local churches, and the larger church.
9. Serve as staff representative on the UPerk Board. While the Campus Minister will be expected to coordinate with and support the Mission of UPerk (our coffee shop and hub for campus ministry and community engagement www.uperk.org), the Executive Director of UPerk is a separate position from the Campus Minister.
10. While the undeniable emphasis is placed on Campus Ministry, the Interim Campus Minister will be a natural conduit between the congregation and the college students. In order to foster relationships between the campus and congregation, the Interim Campus Minister may also carry out the following Pastoral duties (subject to availability/interests):

-provide leadership in the worshiping life of FPC, regularly leading liturgy and occasionally preaching.

-participate with other Pastors in rotation of visits and calls, as well as provide Pastoral Care to members of the church.

-will serve on the staff and seek to foster collegial, cooperative relationships.

-occasionally serve in other areas of ministry when needs arise.

11. Serve in Presbytery and the larger church where skills/interests are best suited.

Accountability and Division of Responsibilities

The Interim Campus Minister serves under the supervision of the Head of Staff and is ultimately accountable to the Session through the Personnel Committee.

Last updated 3/8/23

Note: While the ideal candidate would be full time and able to fulfill all the roles and duties above, a part-time candidate with the following prioritization of duties will be considered for the Interim position:

Highest Priority

Medium Priority

Lowest Priority