

Books on Inclusion

What's on our Bookshelf for Children

When I Go to Church, I Belong
by Elrena Evanso

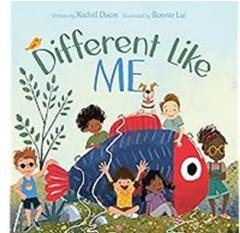

Too Much
by Jolene Gutiérrez

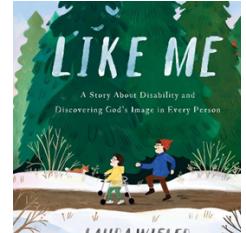

God Made Me Unique
by Joni and Friends

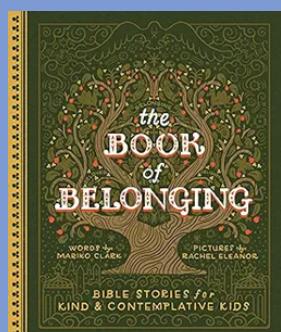

Different like Me
by Xochitl Dixon

Like Me
by Laura Wifler

Bibles - We are telling everyone to go get

The Book of Belonging: Bible Stories for Kind and Contemplative Kids

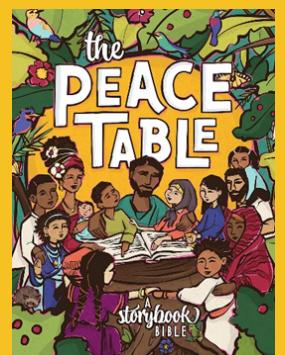

by Mariko Clark and Rachel Eleanor

Filled with beautiful illustrations this Bible storybook helps kids understand the rich diversity of all God's children by emphasizing identity, contemplation, and wonder. It highlights important and overlooked stories to convey greater inclusivity, diversity, and historical representation to share who God is and so we are reminded that God tells each of us, "You are Beloved, you Belong, and you are Delightful." This Bible proclaims that because of the love of God, everyone belongs.

Another amazing and beautiful Bible came out that we can't stop talking about and highly recommend is

The Peace Table: A Storybook Bible by Chrissie Muecke, Jasmin Pittman Morrell, and Teresa Kim Pecinovsky

This Bible focuses on telling children that we are made in God's image and that God's table has room for each of us and all of us. It is a comprehensive family storybook with great additional materials to guide a child to learn about Peacemaking and we can't get enough of the Wonder questions which pair well with Godly Play.

For further information sign up at BigFaithResources.com so you stay up to date on all the free online workshops, sensory-friendly materials, training, and other innovative resources we are currently developing to help your ministry in an ever-changing neurodiverse landscape, please reach out to us at Instagram @BigFaithResources and Facebook.

Thanks - Brianna Holt, Heather Selement, and Michelle Junkin